

LECTURER in piano (3 year contract)

South African College of Music
Faculty of Humanities

As one of the largest and most diversified tertiary music institutions in South Africa, the South African College of Music pursues a wide range of musical activities. Besides the flourishing opera school, there is a strong practical tradition in the field of Western classical performance, Jazz, African and World music, as well as departments in musicology, composition, music education and music technology.

We are seeking to appoint for three years on 1 February 2018 or as soon as possible afterwards a Lecturer in Piano with an emerging track record in teaching and performance. The successful applicant will form part of a team of lecturers dedicated to the teaching of all aspects of the theory and practice of performance of Western classical music at undergraduate and postgraduate level.

Requirements:

- MMus in performance (piano) or imminent completion thereof
- An emerging track record of excellence in undergraduate teaching, both practical and theoretical
- Some experience as accompanist and in chamber music performance
- Evidence of solo performance will be an advantage.

Responsibilities:

- Teaching of undergraduate practical courses in the field piano performance, which may include accompaniment and chamber music;
- Teaching of the undergraduate theoretical courses "Teaching Method" and "Repertoire" for piano students;
- Postgraduate supervision in piano performance;
- Accompanying students at SACM examinations, recitals and competitions;
- Administrative duties.

The annual cost of employment, including benefits (where applicable), is R478 207.
