UNIVERSITY AND EXTERNAL STAKEHOLDER RELATIONSHIPS

The Director: Faculty Operations is a member of the Humanities Faculty Executive Committee and has both external and internal responsibilities in the faculty and university. This post is a key support role to the Dean who manages and leads the Faculty. The main purpose of this position is to provide strategic and effective leadership in the planning, management and oversight of the Faculty's resources through a transformed and sustainable operation that is in line with the Faculty's vision and long-term goals. This is necessary to ensure that the Faculty has the proper systems and controls in place for efficient and effective operation that are guided by sound legal considerations and business management approaches so as to support the delivery of the Faculty's Strategy. As part of the Deanery this position contributes to the overall Faculty strategy and the strategic direction and development of this portfolio.

The primary aim of this position is to manage operational excellence and the incumbent will work in close collaboration with other portfolios within the Deanery to provide executive oversight for the cluster of activities related to all operational functions, including IT, Support Services, Finance, Human Resources and Special Projects. The portfolio includes the line reports for the IT Manager, Marketing Manager, with dotted line oversight of academic administration. This position reports into the Dean of the Faculty.

The scope of the Faculty operations encompasses 7589 students (5348 undergraduate and 2241 postgraduate students), approximately 450 staff on UCT conditions of service. The Faculty has a General Operating Budget (GOB) expenditure (budget) of R500 million rand and a research income of R150 million. There are 18 academic Departments.
